

Biographical Sketch

Joe Tori

Joe Tori possesses 30 years of experience in the automobile and engineering staffing industries.

Joe has held engineering, marketing, product planning, international and general management positions with a number of automotive firms, including General Motors, ASC Incorporated, MSX International and Delco Remy International.

He has served in the following positions:

- President and Chief Operating Officer for ASC Incorporated
- Senior Vice President of Sales and Marketing for Delco Remy International
- General Manager and Divisional Vice President of Engineering for Kelly Services
- Divisional Vice President of Engineering for MascoTech
- Co-founder of Carma International, LLC

Joe is skilled in strategic and business planning, business model validation, business launch, business development, project management and operations management. Additionally, he is able capable of conducting operations due diligence for companies contemplating acquisitions and accessing financing for qualified opportunities.

In November 2006, Tori founded g2 Business Development Solutions, whose mission is helping automobile manufacturers and suppliers achieve top- and bottom-line growth through focused business development initiatives, acquisition and restructuring.

Clients of g2 include Abet Technologies, The Vehicle Production Group, American Automotive Imports, The Merlyn Group, O2, Encompass Healthcare and Experi-Metal Inc.

Tori serves as a member of the Board of Visitors of Oakland University's School of Business Administration, as a member of the City of Rochester Planning Commission and as a board member of the Rochester Rotary Club.

He holds a Bachelors of Science degree from the School of Journalism of Pennsylvania State University has completed graduate studies at Michigan State University and expects to achieve PMP certification in the first quarter of 2010.